Characterization

*Is each character well-developed?
Is each character relatable? Does a character's response seem believable given the situation
being portrayed?*

-The work that you did to create believable characters, especially multiple Peter's, was impressive. The back and forth nature of the exchanges was executed well. I personally loved the Scout Master character the most.

Blocking

Can you tell what the performer is doing in the scene? Is it clear what character(s) they are playing? Is the movement motivated?

-The popping between characters was solid. There were times in the climax of the piece where the pops could have been a bit more polished. The door opening by the piano instructor seemed awkward. Otherwise, the blocking was well done.

Cutting

Do you understand what is happening? Is the story line easy to follow? Does the sequence of events make sense?

-All of the elements of dramatic structure were present. The teaser was a bit long, but not too bad. There is not a point in the presentation when I do not know what is going on. Great work putting together a cohesive story!

-I really enjoyed your performance. The two things I enjoyed most about your performance were 1) comedic timing and 2) non-verbal reactions of your characters. You created some great moments without any words being verbally delivered.

Reason for Decision: (Why did this performance earn the rank that you assigned?)

The performer was the most polished in the room with an easy to follow and enjoyable presentation.
